President-elect of the United States

Excellency,

Allow me to express my most sincere congratulations for your victory at the 2008 United States Presidential Elections and to wish you a great success in this new challenge.

Please be assured of my readiness to cooperate with you Excellency in those fields of common interest for our respective countries and peoples, and to continue with the excellent ties of collaboration and friendship that bind Andorra and the United States of America.

I avail myself of the opportunity to convey to you Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

With my admiration.
Albert Pintat
Head of Government
